PRAY.

For boldness to share the gospel as I interact with people.
For receptive hearts among the people in my community.
For people to come to saving faith in Jesus Christ.
For the Lord of the Harvest to send more workers into the field to join missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support.
Chaplains serve as an extension of the local church in places that other church members and staff sometimes cannot go.
Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain.
Support and pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

NAMB does not provide compensation for SBC endorsed chaplains. However, a general fund is available to receive donations in support of the ministry and pastoral care to SBC endorsed chaplains. To donate, please visit Support Chaplaincy (missionaries.namb.net/projects/full/chaplaincy).

About the Family

Adam and his wife, Laura, have been married since 1995. They live on the campus of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and have four children.

About My Ministry

In 2017, he was commissioned as a Chaplain in the Louisiana Army National Guard. Currently, Adam is assigned to the 2-156 Infantry Battalion. Adam served on staff in Southern Baptist churches in Oklahoma and Texas for 13 years and taught at three institutions before his election to the faculty of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in 2013. He holds an MDiv and PhD in theology from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas. He serves as the McFarland Professor of Theology and Divisional Associate Dean for Theological & Historical Studies. He serves as a Bible study teacher and deacon at First Baptist Church New Orleans. Also, he has written, edited or contributed to nine books, including Christian Theology: Biblical, Historical, and Systematic (Lexham Academic, 2022).
