PROVIDENCE COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

Lacy and I have been married for 18 years. We have three daughters: Karis, Joy and Jaidyn. We have lived in Richmond, Va., for more than 10 years. I served on local church pastoral teams in family and student ministries in both Charlottesville and Richmond before joining the Send Network in 2023.

About My Church Plant

I am passionate about building up believers in sound doctrine, living in Christ-centered community and going out to all nations to share the good news of Jesus Christ. Providence Community Church (PCC) will publicly launch in September of 2023 with the vision to be a unified family of faithful Christ followers who change the world with the Lord's love as well as being committed to preaching and teaching the truth of God's Word without compromise.
