CAPSHAW BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

Sarah and I married in 2008 and have four sons—Luke, John Wicks, Nate and Cameron. In my spare time, I play golf and coach my sons in sports. I enjoy woodworking and all things tech. I hold a degree in business administration from Auburn University and a Master of Divinity degree from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Along with serving churches in both Alabama and Kentucky, I serve as an SBC-endorsed chaplain in the U.S. Army.

About My Ministry

My primary responsibilities at Capshaw include overseeing the administrative staff, facilities, and finances and overseeing the church's membership process, small group ministries and other administrative needs. I meet with church members regularly to help them assimilate into community life and service within the church.

My passion in ministry is to do the work of equipping others for faithful service in the kingdom of God. I deeply desire to help members of the Body understand the gospel's transforming power and discover how it impacts every facet of life so they are driven to live on mission as disciple-makers for Christ. I understand the vital importance of public and private proclamation of the Word of God through expository preaching, discipleship and biblical counseling.
