About My Church Plant

Alayu and Yegile have been planting churches for the past 24 years. God has enabled them to train thousands of leaders and church planters through Alayu's partnership with churches around the world. Since 1996, they have planted thousands of churches with more than 1 million attendees in Ethiopia, South Sudan and Uganda. They have a great passion to plant churches in Denver, Ethiopia and any communities around the globe.

Training leaders, making disciple makers and reaching out to unreached people groups through a holistic approach, especially through compassion, is an experience that Alayu and Yegile acquired that will help them to serve in cross-cultural missions.
