NEW CITY CHURCH

About the Family

I am a University of South Florida (USF) alumnus (go Bulls!). During my college years, I became involved in the Baptist Collegiate Ministries (BCM) at USF. During this time, the Lord gave me a passion for college students and encouraging and equipping them in their walk with Christ. I also love serving through the behind-the-scenes details of the ministry. With everything I do, I hope that the gospel will spread like never before at USF.

About My Ministry

The BCM's vision is to make Jesus known to every student at USF. We also seek to develop and equip the next generation of leaders. We do this through our weekly worship gatherings, Bible studies and outreach events. We also provide our leaders with semester and monthly trainings. My ministry uses my administrative gifts to manage the daily operations of the ministry. I also oversee women's ministry, female leadership and students.
