ONE COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

Hi, I am Alonza Lewis Jr. I grew up in Birmingham, Ala. I attended Auburn University at Montgomery (AUM) where I majored in psychology.

While I was attending AUM, I got very involved in the Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM). There God really showed me His heart for the nations and then grew me as a person who loves to go on mission for Him.

During college, I had the privilege of spending some Christmases and spring breaks in New York City. During those breaks as well as through other short-term trips in North America, I sensed God calling me to New York City. I have a huge heart for New Yorkers, and my heart hurts when I see the lostness in the city. I am so excited to be able to get there and meet people where they are and show them the love of Christ.

About My Church Plant

I will be primarily working with the North American Mission Board (NAMB) as a church planting team member at One Community Church in Hell's Kitchen, Manhattan. I am serving as the worship service coordinator, so I am in charge of all things for Sunday mornings. I recruit people to serve, build slides for Sunday and much more. I have also been an integral part of English as a Second Language (ESL) Ministry as we try to reach asylum seekers. It has been a blessing to serve in this ministry.

PRAY.

Mark 16:15 says, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation." Pray that I will be bold and do just that. Pray that I will be able to present the gospel in a way that people are able to understand and that people will be able to see Christ through me in the way I interact with them. Pray for persons of peace. Pray for me, One Community Church and the church staff. Pray doors will be opened and that many people in New York City will come to faith.
