REDEEMER CHURCH

About the Family

My family and I live in the Raleigh, N.C., area and are members of Redeemer Church in Cary, N.C. My husband and I have been married for 13 years and have a daughter (12) and a son (9). We have two dogs and two cats.

After being saved by grace, through faith in Jesus Christ, I was compelled to share the gospel with my brother who was incarcerated. With my Bible open, I told my brother through a prison glass the good news of Christ. Right there in the prison, he confessed Christ as his Lord and Savior. Everyone in the room stopped, listened and wanted to know more. I began sending Bibles to prisoners, and in July of 2019, Crossroads Prison Ministry was founded.

About My Ministry

Since the founding of Crossroads, we have sent out nearly 1,700 Bibles and discipleship materials to those in prison and donated 140 re-entry backpacks to those re-entering society after incarceration.

God continues to open doors for my ministry to the incarcerated, and we launched a new evangelism and discipleship program in Spanish.

Recently, God has laid it on my heart to restructure the organization in a way that reaches more people. We have partnered with Canines for Christ and are sharing God's love with the local community through a therapy dog ministry.
