

Amy Wilhelmus

SOUTH SIDE BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I grew up in Covington, Ky., helping my mother serve the people of Covington at South Side Baptist Church through inner-city missions. After being gone for nine years, I came back home to serve as the Moore Activity Center director connected with my home church in July of 2000.

Neil and I married in April of 2004. We have one son, Corran, who was born in 2008.

Between missions, Scouts and everyday life, we stay very busy. Please pray for us as we serve.

About My Ministry

The Moore Activity Center is designed to show love to inner-city individuals and families by developing the whole person (physical, mental, emotional, spiritual) through teaching, nurturing, mentoring, tutoring and lay counseling based on Christian values. Put simply—we strive to meet needs and share Christ in our community.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray that those who are lost in our community will find Christ in a personal way.

Pray for needs to be met for our families and our center as we seek to reach out.

Pray for more Christian leaders to step up to help us reach out in a great way.

PARTICIPATE

Volunteer at the Moore Activity Center. Pray for the Moore Activity Center and the various ministries in which we take part.

Pray for missionary Amy Wilhelmus and her family as they serve the Lord in Covington, Ky.

Give monetarily or provide materials to the Moore Activity Center.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.
