COMPASS CHURCH - SAN DIEGO

About the Family

My wife, Alexa, and I are native Floridians and got married in May of 2020. We met in our church collegiate ministry during our time at the University of Florida, and we got to serve on many missions teams with our ministries. One such team led us to working with Compass Church in San Diego.

Alexa and I grew a heart for this ministry and people. We are now on staff with Compass Church as collegiate/university missionaries.

About My Ministry

Compass Church was planted in 2018 and is located just off the campus of San Diego State University. Our mission is to invite everyone to find and follow Jesus. We aim to be Christ-centered in all we do and to help people grow as Christ followers through evangelism and discipleship.
