VOICE OF CROSSING

About the Family

I was born into a Muslim family but found and accepted Christ as my Savior on April 29, 1997. Soon after, I married Noreen, who also came from a Muslim background. Noreen and I have been married since 1998 and have two amazing children—Roselyn (24) and Rami (23).

About My Church Plant

After finding Christ, I decided to serve God and spread His Word to others. I have a weekly, live TV program that specifically spreads the Word of God to Muslims. Many have called this show to accept Christ and give their lives to God. Noreen also has a weekly show dedicated to Muslims who found Christ and decided to share their stories with the rest of the world.

Our mission is to spread the Word of God and His grace to Middle Easterners around the world.
