CHRIST COVENANT REFORMED BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I was born in the Middle East to a Muslim family. My family immigrated to Canada when I was a teenager. During my mid-twenties, the Lord, in His sovereign grace, saved me at a local church in Montreal, through which He also called me to ministry. There, I was trained, ordained and served as an associate pastor before the Lord called us to plant a church.

With God's help and my wife's perseverance, I completed a master's degree in Christian ministry and a Ph.D. in Bible Exposition from Liberty University. I am also a full member of the Evangelical Theological Society (ETS).

The Lord has blessed me and my wife, Petra, with two beautiful girls, Rebekah Eliana and Elizabeth Sarai. It is an incredible privilege to be called to serve in the needy province of Quebec, where most of the population has never heard the gospel.

About My Church Plant

God has called me and some godly men and their families to plant Christ Covenant Reformed Baptist Church in the heart of Montreal in Town of Mount Royal. In His providence, the Lord has blessed us through our Sending Church, Grace Church, whose senior pastor, Brad, and his elders have discerned God's calling to walk alongside us. By God's grace, we will plant a missional church that will contend with the spiritual condition of this province through the light of the gospel.

We seek to be a Word-centered and prayerful community filled with the love of Christ and moved by the Spirit of God with compassionate hearts for the lost. However, we recognize that we cannot do this alone. We desire to partner with individuals and churches who share our passion for seeing the kingdom of Christ advance in Quebec to the glory of the Triune God.
