About the Family

I grew up as the fifth child of a Home Mission Board (SBC) endorsed USAF Chaplain. I was born in Mississippi, then moved to Texas, Okinawa, Missouri, New Mexico and then Germany, where I graduated high school prior to returning to Texas for college and seminary. I met my wife, Susan, at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (1994), and we married in 1995.

I have two children: Daniel and Ray. Daniel is a sophomore at Baylor University studying as music major as an organist. My daughter, Ray, is pursuing a degree in psychology working toward a Ph.D. I have served as pastor and interim pastor at churches across Texas, Georgia and California. I look forward to continuing my ministry when I retire from the Air Force in 2026. My wife, children and I are open to God's call in our lives and are excited about a lifetime of Christian service.

About My Ministry

I am the Wing Chaplain for the 67 Cyberspace Wing on Joint Base San Antonio–Lackland since July 2019. I previously served as the Deputy Command Chaplain for United States Forces–Korea. I began my ministry in September 1992 while I was a student at SWBTS in Ft. Worth, Texas. I was licensed in December 1992 and ordained in December 1994. I graduated in May 1995 and completed a 4-unit (ACPE) residency in 1997. I was commissioned as a USAF-Reserve Chaplain in January 1997, active duty since July 1999. I have served at bases in Texas, California, North Dakota, Washington D.C., Guam, Florida, Korea and have deployed twice (Data Masked location and Afghanistan). I earned my Doctor of Ministry in 2005 at Oblate School of Theology, a Master of Science in Counseling Psychology in 2012 and a licensed marriage and family therapist credential in 2016.
