REDEMPTION ORLANDO

About the Family

My beautiful wife, Erin, and I have been married for seven years. We have two amazing and active boys. Liam is 3, and Macklin is 1.

We previously served in Americus, Ga., where I served as the senior pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church. We have also lived and served in New Orleans, La., where I was a student pastor while in seminary. I earned my Master of Divinity in Pastoral Ministry from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in 2016 and am currently pursuing a doctorate in leadership from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Our family enjoys doing anything outdoors, especially if it involves the water, and we cheer for all things Florida State!

About My Church Plant

We are planting Redemption Orlando in Orlando, Fla. Specifically, we are planting this new work in an area known as SODO (South of Downtown Orlando), which is a mixture of historic neighborhoods and a thriving commercial district, which is one of the fastest growing communities in Orlando.

SODO is comprised of many groups, from young professionals and immigrants to medical professionals and artists. As we have learned more about this diverse area, a common theme we found among everyone is a search for identity and belonging. That is why we say Redemption Orlando is a family of believers reaching all people, with all of Jesus, for all of life. No matter who people are or what background their background, Redemption Orlando wants to help everyone find the freedom that comes with having an identity that is found and rooted in Jesus.
