LUMBER CITY BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I have been an employee with the Beasley Group since 2003. My wife, Regina, and I married in 1988. Together we have reared three daughters, welcomed two sons-in-law and continue to spoil our grandchildren.

My Christian ministry began when I was ordained as a deacon in 1990 at Emmanuel Baptist Church in Manning, S.C. Following a calling to preach, in 2014 I was licensed at First Baptist Church in Hazlehurst, Ga., and was later ordained as a Southern Baptist minister in 2016. I served as pastor at Lumber City Baptist Church from 2016–2020.

Currently, I serve as chaplain not only for the Beasley Group but also the Jeff Davis Sheriff's Office and the Georgia Association of Fire Chiefs. "I consider it an honor to serve the employees of the Beasley Group ... as we grow together ..."

About My Ministry

We serve a timber industry production company of more than 1,500 direct employees. Our chaplain ministry here at the Beasley Group started in 2019, and we continue to grow and expand the ministry throughout our company, community, state and worldwide.

We hold weekly chapel service for our employees and for the community.
