MOSAIC CHURCH PROVO

About the Family

I was raised in Arkansas and grew up in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS) before accepting Christ at the age of 17. In fall 2022, I moved to Utah for school and quickly discovered the missional opportunities as an ex-LDS, now a born-again Christian. A desire grew in me to see the people here encounter the biblical Jesus. In July 2025, I welcomed my son, Holland, who has been an incredible joy and blessing in my life.

My background has given me a deep understanding of the LDS culture and doctrine, as well as a love for Latter-day Saint people. I am personally familiar with the cost many face when leaving the LDS church, yet even more aware of the immeasurable freedom found in the true gospel of Christ.

About My Church Plant

After moving to Utah, I began attending Mosaic Church Provo. I was baptized at Mosaic Church Provo, became a Covenant Partner and, in the summer of 2024, the opportunity to serve as the Mosaic Kids Director opened. Today, I serve in that role in the children's ministry. I feel passionate about "pre" discipling the children of Mosaic Church Provo, reaching other children and families in our community, and supporting our families as they disciple their children.
