MOSAIC CHURCH

About the Family

I went to college at the University of Northern Colorado. After college, I joined staff with a college ministry (Cru) in Lincoln, Nebraska. After serving with Cru, I moved to Texas to pursue my M.Div. at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. When I graduated with my M.Div., I came on staff with the Baptist Student Ministry in Arlington, Texas. Meanwhile, I began earning my Ph.D. in evangelism and fell in love with one of my coworkers at the Baptist Student Ministry. Maggie and I married in March 2023 and felt called to Utah to reach the lost!

About My Ministry

God has Maggie and me in Utah to share the saving news of Jesus Christ with the Latter-Day Saints (LDS) community. Maggie and I both come from college ministry and will continue doing college ministry through a local Southern Baptist church.

I will finish my Ph.D. online at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary while we disciple students, share the gospel and teach others about Jesus in Utah. We hope that one of the most unreached areas in North America will hear and believe in the name of Jesus!
