About the Family

I'm a 26-year-old artist and local missionary living in Southern California. I'm a lover of the gospel, people, animals and whimsy. I grew up overseas as a missionary kid in South Africa, Israel and Germany! I am newly married to the most humble man in the world, Reed. We have two fuzzy cats named Indiana Jones and Huckleberry Finn. I'm a creative longing every day to learn more about my Creator!

About My Ministry

As a Christ follower, I want to share the reason for the hope that is within me with non-believers. I've always felt a tug in my heart toward ministry. Throughout college, I was pulled in many directions and confused about what path the Lord wanted me to go down, but always gravitated toward ministry. After college, through discussion with church family, friends and my own self-reflection, I've realized more and more that ministry is a place where I am able to use my spiritual gifts with joyful urgency and passion for the lost. It honestly sounds too good to be true—getting PAID to share the best news ever? Amazing! I long for the college students I will meet to come to deeply know their Creator and understand His vast love for them—and the joy and satisfaction that comes from understanding our identity as His Beloved.
