About the Family

Billy and Jessica met in Illinois and were married in 2006. In 2009, within days of each other, they surrendered their lives to Christ Jesus. They are the proud parents of three children: Brylee, Mackena and Zane.

A native Buckeye by birth, Billy was born in Lorain, Ohio, but moved to South Florida in his early teen years. Billy is a U.S. Army combat veteran. Jessica was born in Paris, Ill., and grew up in the Illiana region. Both Jessica and Billy are alumni of Liberty University.

As a family, they enjoy traveling and exploring new places, spending time with friends and family and serving the Lord by sharing His Word with others.

About My Church Plant

Jessica, a certified Life Affirming Specialist (LAS), is passionate about her ministry of serving mothers and fathers to protect unborn children. She has served as the client services director of Alpha House Pregnancy Resource Center. Billy has served as a youth pastor and, most recently, as an associational mission strategist.

In 2013, they were introduced to the concept of church planting and, in 2015, began to explore the possibility of being church planters. It was not until 2020 that the Lord placed the calling upon their hearts, which was followed with confirmation when they were called by the Cleveland SEND Network. Their goal is to connect people to Jesus through worship, community, discipleship and service together.
