Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I speak
Pray that through this ministry, more people would come to saving faith and live on mission.
Pray for stamina and longevity for ministry amidst attacks from the enemy.

PARTICIPATE

I would love for everyone who is able to support this ministry to be as involved as they are able! I will be sending monthly ministry reports via email to provide updates and places to pray over. I am both encouraged and honored to be supported by such a group of willing, loving and Christlike people.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources.
Support a missionary financially.

About the Family

I was fortunate enough to grow up in a Christian household with my mom, dad and younger brother, Shelby. My family loves me, prays for me, and painted for me a picture of what a godly household looks like. I cannot begin to express how thankful I am for the Lord's providence in my upbringing and allowing me to be surrounded by such a wealth of love and grace.

About My Ministry

My role in the college ministry at First Baptist Church of Opelika (FBCO) will be to know Christ and to make Him known. On a daily basis, that will look like discipling students who already know Christ as they grow in their knowledge and love of God, as well as reaching the 19,000+ students on Auburn's campus who do not have a relationship with God. I will also seek to be trained for ministry by taking courses with New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

My prayer is that many students will have changed lives because of the impact the gospel has on them during their time at Auburn and at FBCO. I hope more Christians in this ministry will have a softened heart to reach their neighbors in Auburn but also all the nations to meet unreached places with the gospel and come to know Christ as Lord.
