Provide.

PRAY.

Pray that God will help me lead and love my family well.
Pray that God will provide resources and people.
Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom we speak.
Pray that through this ministry, more people would come to saving faith and live on mission.
Pray for stamina and longevity for ministry amidst attacks from the enemy.
Pray that God will knit our team members hearts together.

PARTICIPATE

Build relationships with missionaries and their families.
Send notes of encouragement.
Learn birthdays and anniversaries, so you can send gifts and cards.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources.
Support a missionary financially.

SALT CITY CHURCH

About the Family

I am a devoted husband to my wife, Ashantae, and father to our three amazing kids. I was born and raised in Akron, Ohio. Christ found me in college while playing football.

I am passionate about preaching God's Word, shepherding people and raising up leaders to be salt and light wherever life exists. Vocationally, I have worked as an educator, counselor and coach. I am also a two-time author. I hold degrees from North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University and Argosy University.

Ashantae and I met in Greensboro, N.C., and were married in July 2011. Ashantae is a native of New Orleans, La., and holds degrees from Howard University and North Carolina State University. She is currently enjoying this season of being a devoted wife and homeschooling mama to our three kids, Judah, Bethany and Aubrey.

About My Church Plant

Our vision is to see this generation living transformed by the gospel of Jesus Christ, connected to God and each other, and living on mission where life exists.

Our mission is to equip believers to represent Jesus to everyone, everywhere.
