RECLAMATION CHURCH

About the Family

My wife, Emily, and I have been married for four years and have three boys: Carter (4), Mason (3) and newborn Shepherd. We met each other in high school in Owensboro, Ky. After being close friends for nearly 10 years, we gave dating a chance and knew immediately we should have started dating sooner.

We both have master's degrees in biblical counseling. My degree is from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Emily's is from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

We both are passionate about serving the Lord and seeing people come to know Him. We long to see lives changed and the gospel spread to all people.

About My Church Plant

After more than a decade of serving full time in student ministry, God began to lead our family in the direction of church planting. After much prayer and vision trips, our heart began to break for the people of Pittsburgh.

Our heart is to plant a church that will exist to be a refuge for all people—to see people made new in Jesus, grow in Jesus and to be on mission for Jesus.

We desire to plant a church that will make disciples who are gospel-centered, who deeply love one another and who passionately go make more disciples.
