

Brian Morales

IGLESIA LAKESHORE ESPAÑOL

About the Family

Brian Morales is married to Joan Daly and is blessed to have two children: Briana and Evan. They are from Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. The Lord led them to minister in the New Orleans area to reach Spanish-speaking communities in the city with the gospel. They understand the need among Hispanics, and they love and serve this community with joy and compassion.

About My Ministry

Brian became a follower of Christ when he was 6. At 16, he sensed the Lord calling him to ministry. His initial reaction was rejection and denial because he knew firsthand how hard ministry is, but the Lord revealed the need in the local church for a youth pastor, and after five years he responded to the call. During those five years, he was active in evangelism, Bible study, personal application of God's Word and obedience to God. His passion was that young adults would serve God in a more tangible way and become exemplary followers of Him.

After serving 10 years as a youth pastor, the Lord opened a door to plant a church in New Orleans. Before this, he was trained in a residency program for five months through RED 1:8 Church Planting Network. Brian and Joan believe God is opening doors, homes and neighborhoods to spread the gospel.
