THE GROVE CHURCH

About the Family

I was raised in West Monroe, La., which is a small town no one had heard of until Duck Dynasty came along and put us on the map. I became a Christian in high school and later began to sense a desire to pursue ministry in college at Mississippi State. It was there I met my now wife, and we were later married just as I started seminary at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

We now have three children—Millie, Jack and Brooks—and love all things Disney, Seaworld and Legoland.

About My Church Plant

Our church started in 2018 and is planted in a suburb in Orlando. In many of ways, it feels like home to my wife and I. The ministry at The Grove is committed to the centrality of Jesus and His mission to see disciples made. Our commitment is to be a church devoted to carrying out the Great Commission as we seek to develop and pray for a culture of missions, evangelism and discipleship.

PRAY.

Pray our church members will grow in their love and participation in missions, both locally and globally.
Pray our church members will grow in their love for and participation in evangelism. Pray the Lord would give us boldness and opportunities to share our faith and be witnesses in our community to the saving work of Christ.
Pray our church members will grow in their love and participation in discipleship. Pray the Lord would develop a culture in which teaching and edifying one another becomes the norm as we follow Jesus.
Pray God would open hearts to embrace and trust Jesus and that we would see more baptisms this year through the ministry of our members.
