COMMONWEALTH CITY CHURCH

About the Family

My name is Callie Babcock. I was born and raised in Lexington, Ky. I grew up in a single-mother home and went to a performing arts school here in Lexington.

I started at the University of Kentucky (UK) pursuing a degree in theatre, but felt God calling me to drop out after three semesters, so I did. I've been working since then as a barista and baker.

But now I've been working at the Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM) at UK for a few months, and it is the best job I've ever had. I love getting to hang out with students and share Jesus with them all day long.

About My Ministry

Working on UK's campus is so amazing. God gave me a heart for the campus five years ago when I started going here. I would pray that God would give me the opportunity to share the gospel with as many UK students as possible. And now that I'm in a position where it's literally my job to share the gospel with students.

I know that God has been preparing me for this role for a few years now. In my role at the BCM, I meet with and disciple female students, lead a women's Bible study, help plan and execute a variety of different events, encourage students and assist our leadership team. I love my job and where God has placed me. The ministry He has entrusted me with is truly a blessing.
