About the Family

I grew up in Chandler, Okla., where I graduated from Chandler High School and Gordon Cooper Technology Center. I first gave my life to Christ when I was about 7 years old, but not until my senior year of high school did my faith truly become personal. God has placed people in my life who taught me to live out my faith, not only in my heart, but through my actions—my hands and feet.

Since that turning point, God has surrounded me with people who have encouraged, challenged and walked alongside me. A huge part of that growth came through the Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM) at the Oklahoma State University (OSU). At BCM, I saw faith in action—students loving boldly, serving sacrificially and sharing the gospel without hesitation. In the midst of it all, God was transforming me, shaping my heart and deepening my calling to live for Him.

About My Ministry

The BCM at OSU hosts multiple weekly gatherings, including large-group worship, discipleship, Bible studies, events and hangouts—creating opportunities for more than 400 college students to hear and share the gospel. Our leadership team of 120+ students, organized into nine groups, further expands these opportunities to reach the campus and beyond with the good news of Jesus.

In my role at BCM, I oversee the media production (creative) team, social media and campus outreach. Through these avenues of service, I am walking closely with Jesus to create spaces where people can genuinely encounter God's love. My heart is to serve and love those whom the Father has placed around me with the goal of making the place where I am reflect, in some small way, the beauty of heaven.

PRAY.

I'm asking God to fill me with boldness, humility, grace, joy and His love.
Boldness—to step toward the people who are often overlooked and walked past each day.
Humility—to remember that this is not my ministry to build, but God's.
Grace—to extend to those who resist the kingdom or try to discourage me.
Joy—to draw strength from the Lord and serve with energy and passion.
And above all, love—God's love—to pour out freely on anyone and everyone, especially those who are hurting, searching, or feeling alone. It would mean the world to me if you could join me in this prayer over my time at the OSU BCM.

PARTICIPATE

We invite churches and individuals to join us at OSU BCM through prayer, financial support or serving at events. Your partnership helps share God's love, disciple students and make a real impact on campus. Whether you can help in one way or all three, we'd love for you to be part of what He is doing, to have you join God's work here—reach out and connect with us!
