

Cameron and Taylor Mitchell

CENTER POINT CHURCH

About the Family

We met our sophomore year of college through a church ski trip. We did not really talk until Taylor went to a Baptist Campus Ministry formal and Cameron invited her to play games afterward. We got married just last December, and we are so excited to be partners not only in marriage but in ministry, too!

About My Ministry

Our vision: To live a life that matters for the sake of the gospel. How? By equipping students to live out their faith while they are in college so they will be prepared to live for Jesus for a lifetime.

We will be serving on staff with Baptist Campus Ministry at the University of Kentucky. Our hearts are to help shepherd and build up leaders who want to radically change the world. On top of that, we hope to share the good news of Jesus with those who may never have heard it before. College students are constantly seeking the next thing to satisfy them or to find their identity in. Our goal is to show them that the only true satisfaction and who we should find our identity is in Christ.
