FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF PRINCETON

About the Family

I am happily married to my wife, Karmen, and we recently celebrated our 21st wedding anniversary. We have twins, a boy named Trey and a girl named Taylor. They are both 20. My son has special needs, and my daughter works in the field that takes care of children who have special needs.

My first pastorate was in the church where I was saved in 2004.

About My Ministry

I pastor First Baptist Church of Princeton in West Virginia. I am the director of chaplaincy for Disaster Relief (DR) in West Virginia. I am endorsed by the Southern Baptist Convention as a volunteer DR chaplain.

I have been a pastor for nine years.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.

Pray that through this ministry, more people would come to saving faith and live on mission.

Pray for stamina and longevity for ministry amidst attacks from the enemy. Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.
