LIFE COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

I grew up in a small town in Mississippi. While attending college, I was blessed to have many opportunities to learn about diversity within the classroom and across the globe. God blessed me with an opportunity to study abroad in East Asia for a semester to grow my heart for internationals.

Through research I completed as a student, I became aware of the needs and challenges refugees and immigrants encounter in the United States. I decided to continue my education to get my master's degree in English as a Second Language (ESL).

About My Ministry

As a compassion ministry catalyst, I will assist in building the international ministry by continuing to strengthen partnerships and develop ministry programs, seeking to embrace, equip and empower internationals within the city of Boston.
