SOMOS ECCLESIA

About the Family

My calling is to help people understand, listen and apply the simple truth of God in their lives and follow His will. I want to influence ordinary people to achieve and do extraordinary things in the name of Jesus. I believe that God's desire and plan for our lives is good and perfect, we just have to align to His plan.

My desire is also to empower people to be the church right where they are, in their communities and neighborhoods and letting God flow through them. Along with my wife, Jessica, and our children, Milan and Cristian, we want to see a church that is genuine, loving, compassionate, kind, generous and above all with a serving heart to reach those around them—being the church right where we are.

About My Church Plant

Somos Ecclesia | Somos means "we are." We are a community of people studying God's Word together, creating resources and opportunities to empower, multiply and be the church right where we are. So our mission is simple—to empower, multiply and be the church. We want to multiply the church of Christ everywhere. The way to do this is by empowering and equipping followers of Christ to impact the people around them with the love and gospel of Christ. As we all do the work of discipling, we will be able to identify where there is greater growth and thus show us the way to plant churches around the world.
