REALITY CHURCH MIAMI

About the Family

I have been married to the love of my life, Cassie, for almost 12 years. I also get to be “Papi” to two of the cutest kids in the known world—Maya (5) and Kara (4).

About My Church Plant

My wife and I are thrilled to move back to Miami to plant a church that will share and show the love of Jesus. Before moving to Chicago to complete my seminary education at Trinity Evangelical School, I had the joy of pastoring, preaching and leading small and large congregations in Miami for more than eight years. While in Chicago, I had the privilege of continuing to serve at our local church as well as travel across the U.S. as an itinerant preacher.

Our love for Miami has only increased while we’ve been away, and we can’t wait to come back to make disciples and see the gospel continue to advance in the city.
