Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

NAMB does not provide compensation for SBC endorsed chaplains. However, a general fund is available to receive donations in support of the ministry and pastoral care to SBC endorsed chaplains. To donate, please visit Support Chaplaincy (missionaries.namb.net/projects/full/chaplaincy).

About the Family

My wife and I were married while I was deployed as an enlisted National Guard Soldier. I had just returned from Iraq. We began our journey with the Chaplaincy that same year in 2009. I completed the Chaplain Candidate Program with the LAARNG in 2014. There have been many challenges, including a deployment back to Iraq in 2021, but we have been blessed through the journey.

I just received a new assignment with 2-108 CAV, 256th IBCT, and I just received notice that I am up for a promotion to the rank of Major.

My wife has always been my rock, my strength and my friend. We look forward to the ministry that God has for us both.

About My Ministry

My primary ministry is the Chaplaincy with the U.S. Army, LAARNG. I have served as a youth minister and as a senior adult minister. I am currently very active with my local church, Sweetwater Baptist Church, Quitman, La.
