SWEETWATER BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

My wife and I were married while I was deployed as an enlisted National Guard Soldier. I had just returned from Iraq. We began our journey with the Chaplaincy that same year in 2009. I completed the Chaplain Candidate Program with the LAARNG in 2014. There have been many challenges including a deployment back to Iraq in 2021, but we have been blessed through the journey.

I just received a new assignment with 2-108 CAV, 256th IBCT, and I just received notice that I am promotable to the Rank of Major.

My wife has always been my rock, my strength and my friend. We look forward to the ministry that God has for us both.

About My Ministry

My primary ministry is the Chaplaincy with the US ARMY, LAARNG. I have served as a youth minister and as a senior adult minister. I am currently very active with my local church, Sweetwater Baptist Church, Quitman, La., 71268.
