

Carter Martin

CITIZENS CHURCH

About the Family

Katie and I grew up in the Annapolis area, where we met in middle school and started dating in high school. After finishing our degrees at Liberty University, we got married in the summer of 2017 and moved back to the Annapolis area.

We just welcomed our first child, Camden, four months ago and now are accepting a call to do full-time ministry at the Naval Academy through Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM).

About My Ministry

BCM has been on the Naval Academy campus for more than 50 years with the mission of reaching the students with gospel and changing their lives forever.

The Lord has been gracious over the past 12 years and grown BCM's influence at the Academy to more than 120 regular attendees. BCM has accomplished this through the means of a weekly worship service, a BCM house strategically placed right next to the campus and, most importantly, one-on-one discipleship. I am being brought on as a full-time staff member to meet with students on a regular basis, walk through Scripture with them, provide care and counsel and ultimately get them involved with BCM and the local church.

Find out how you can
Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for confidence for us as we administer the gospel to students and as we seek to speak truth and love into the lives of the Midshipmen.
Pray that through this ministry, students will come to know and enjoy Christ.
Pray their lives will change and they will go forth into the military and the world to impact it for Christ.
Pray for stamina and longevity for the ministry. Pray the workers God has called to it will be sustained by the Word of God and the joy of His people.

PARTICIPATE

Consider partnering with us through prayer, volunteering and/or financially giving.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.