KING'S CHURCH

About the Family

My name is Carter Phillips, and I am a resident of Anthem, Arizona. I graduated from Grand Canyon University in December of 2025 before answering God's calling to stay in Arizona indefinitely. I will be joining the King's Church staff as a full-time resident in August of 2026.

About My Church Plant

Beginning in the fall, I'll serve as a ministry resident at King's Church, a church plant in Anthem, Arizona. Through this residency, I am being guided by pastoral leadership and biblical training to understand my calling in ministry.

My time is focused on four things: developing as a leader, receiving hands-on pastoral ministry training, engaging our city with the gospel, and learning to make disciples who make disciples. Alongside our team, I am actively building relationships with church members and leading in the kids' and young adults' ministries. My goal is to finish this residency ready to take the next step in ministry that God calls me to.
