DREAM CHURCH JACKSONVILLE

About the Family

My personal mission is to love God, love family, love people, preach/teach the gospel and plant churches. Born and raised in Brooklyn, N.Y., I have always demonstrated my love for God and family.

In 1997, I married my wife, Chardel. We have four children. Elijah, Joshua and Journey are 27-year-old triplets, and Daniel is 13.

In 2015, the passion and call to plant Dream Church in the Springfield neighborhood of Jacksonville, Fla., began. I completed a pastoral residency at District Church and have served on staff at a number of churches throughout my time in ministry, serving in a variety of ways from pastoral intern to my current position of lead pastor of Dream Church Jax.

About My Church Plant

Our vision is to become a generous, diverse family empowered by the gospel, demonstrating God's love to the people of Springfield and the Region.

Our mission is to go share the gospel, make disciples and serve our local community (Matthew 28:19).

We are called to live on mission, demonstrating our core values at Dream Church: biblical family, biblical empowerment, biblical diversity and biblical generosity.
