MESA CHURCH

About the Family

As military brats, Audrey and I grew up living in various places, but met and got married in Virginia six years ago. We are parents to a busy toddler named Lewis, as well as a daughter named Ana Joy and a son named Malachi, who are waiting for us in eternity.

We love the outdoors, good food and the military community, so we are ecstatic to be back in San Diego where all three come together.

About My Church Plant

Mesa Church was born of a merger between our church planting core team and Mission Village Church in central San Diego. We are launching in spring of 2022 as a gospel-centered church on mission in central San Diego.

The vision of Mesa Church is to help others discover the cause of Christ in the gospel and the Great Commission and then help them align their lives to it.
