About the Family

For the past 10 years the Lord has allowed me to grow and serve in His calling as a pastor and minister of the gospel.

After acquiring a Master of Divinity degree from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, I served as lead pastor for two different churches in the metro Dallas, Texas, area. Every step taken along the way has equipped me, my wife, Renee, and our three children for the call to plant The Oaks Church in northwest Arkansas.

My desire is to glorify God by making disciples and planting churches that perpetuate the gospel ministry and mission until Christ returns.

About My Church Plant

When God does a work in you, He is often preparing to do a work through you. In our home, God has cultivated a conviction for family discipleship and community. When God imparted His vision for mankind, it was intended to be fulfilled through the family. Simultaneously, in community we are God's sons and daughters who constitute His family—a family He has commissioned to be gospel witnesses to a lost and broken world.

As God began to draw our hearts to Cave Springs, we saw an area of northwest Arkansas that is primed for the harvest that we believe will occur through a focus on family and community. We pray you will catch an urgent vision for the furtherance of God's church planting movement through The Oaks Church in Cave Springs, Ark.
