ONE COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

Chris and Sarah been serving and living in Hell's Kitchen since 2009. Sarah is originally from West Virginia and moved to the city to attend The American Musical and Dramatic Academy, a college and conservatory for performing arts. Currently she works for Fellowship for the Performing Arts, a company that produces theater from a Christian worldview. Chris is originally from Tennessee and moved to the city for church planting. He is also on staff with Young Life in Manhattan. Chris and Sarah have been married since 2014 and have a little pup named Dorothy. They may love the Wizard of Oz.

About My Church Plant

Hell's Kitchen has a long history as a challenging neighborhood. Its story includes impoverished immigrants being exploited, gangs, drugs, prostitution and organized crime, making it a neighborhood of grit and struggle. In some sense, the name Hell's Kitchen says it all. It has been a place that is both notorious and generative in terms of the culture it has produced. Although many see the neighborhood as a location, not a home, and as a place to commute to versus a place to commit to, One Community Church (OCC), seeks to challenge and change this reality by modeling an incarnational presence. We are staying for the long haul, embracing this place as our home and being missionaries who are found in the fabric of the community.
