DAYBREAK COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

The Lord saved me while I was running full-speed to hell. That's my story. After that, I graduated from North Greenville University where I earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Christian studies. I have no wife, no children and no pets, but I do have two brothers, two nieces and one nephew.

Recently, the Lord placed Psalm 119:105 on my heart. It reads: "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

God may only show us the few steps ahead of us, but He knows the destination. That's enough reason for me to follow Him.

About My Ministry

The Lord has called me to evangelize, disciple and mobilize college students and young adults. I will serve as a campus missionary at the University of Vermont in Burlington doing just that! I desire that young people grow deeper in their understanding of who God is and what He has called them to do.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I speak. Pray that through this ministry, more people would come to faith in Christ and live on mission. Pray that the students who already know Christ as their Lord and Savior would share their faith with their friends. Pray that I would not trust in my own understanding, but that I would lean upon the Lord in every circumstance.

PARTICIPATE

Connect as a Sending Church or a Supporting Church with the work here. Commit to long-term missions support with me as a partner. Consider joining me on a short-term mission experience.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.
