GOSPEL HOPE CHURCH

About the Family

I grew up in the suburbs of Philadelphia, while Dorothy was an adopted military kid who grew up in a bit of everywhere—Japan, Texas, Idaho and Arizona, to name a few. At young ages, the Lord called us to respond to His grace through the preaching of His Word.

Dorothy and I met while attending Bible College in Wisconsin. The Lord sent us to Houston to help revitalize Grace Life Baptist Church where we loved God's people for 11 years. I served as a pastor for six of those years, and Dorothy served in music and children's ministries.

Dorothy and I have been married for 12 years and have a little girl named Providence.

About My Church Plant

Individuals identifying with Christ in the Houston Area are on the decline. This trend reflects the reality of lostness and the rapid increase of Houston's population. Also, this decline is due in part to the influx of international migration to Houston. Houston hosts more than 220,000 residents from countries and people groups who have little to no access to the gospel.

Gospel Hope will be a faithful light in the growing darkness through expositional preaching, relational evangelism and community care.
