TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I am from California and spent the vast majority of my life in the northern part of the state. I grew up in a Christian home, but I did not fully commit my life to Christ until my early twenties. I developed a passion for serving the Lord in worship and leading Bible studies early in my walk of faith.

During my deployment while I was in the Army, I sensed a call to become a pastor and a chaplain. I met my wife, Atri, shortly before my deployment and kept a long-distance relationship. She too grew up in a Christian home. We got married about a year after that and have been together for almost 10 years. We are both committed to serving the Lord.

My desire is to become an Army chaplain to go back and reach soldiers for Christ!

About My Ministry

I am currently an SBC-endorsed hospice chaplain. For three years, I have been ministering unto people at end of life. I get to talk to all kinds of patients and their families about the eternal hope in Jesus Christ! I have completed one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education that includes hospital visits to the VA clinic and military hospitals.

I have served in volunteer leadership positions in a couple of churches over the past 12 years. These positions range from youth leader, small group leader for young adults, music worship, Bible studies in a military setting and volunteer prison ministry.

I went to the King's University to get my master's degree in Divinity for the purpose of pursuing the call to ministry. I have served as associate pastor for almost four years filling in wherever needed, which includes preaching the Word!
