

Claude Cox, Jr.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

My wife, Lois, and I are retired and have a home in Leesburg, Fla. Lois was widowed and has two grown sons in Kentucky and West Virginia and four grandchildren. I'm divorced with no children. God brought us together in 2018, and we'll celebrate our seventh anniversary in October 2025.

We are completely of one mind, seeking what God has planned for our life and try to follow His lead every day. We both love missionary work both overseas as well in the U.S. Lois has always enjoyed working with children. I've had a passion for senior adults and now I am one. Traveling extensively in our motorhome affords us the opportunity to serve wherever God sends us.

About My Ministry

Other than our local church, I am serving as an SBC-endorsed chaplain. I'm also an assessor with Florida Baptist Disaster Relief Ministries. This has been an extremely rewarding ministry for both of us. Additionally, we do volunteer work in association with Campers on Mission in Florida and other states. We have a motorhome and travel extensively.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend your church's reach by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.