CITIES CHURCH

About the Family

I grew up in Brainerd, Minn., where I learned to love baseball, broom ball and spending all my time with close friends. I am married to the beautiful Natika Nichols and am the father of two joy-filled, strong-willed babies. I am currently transitioning into the full-time work of church planting. I love local sports, books, blogs and roundtable discussions and am not afraid of a question I can't answer. When I am not at home or in the office, you can locate me at one of the local coffee shops. Feel free to pop in. I love people more than projects and am probably looking for a distraction anyway.

About My Church Plant

My aim is to plant a healthy church somewhere in the greater Minneapolis metro.
