Provide.

PRAY.

Pray that my family and I will adjust well to the new lifestyle and environment. Pray for God's strength and wisdom as I minister to soldiers.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains. Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.

NEW LIFE KOREAN BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I was born in a Christian family. My father is a Baptist pastor. My parents have been in ministry for 40 years. I grew up in church with the strong faith support of my parents.

I was called to ministry when I was 30. I have an M.Div. and a Th.M degree from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. I was ordained on May 18, 2014, at Clayvillage Baptist Church in Shelbyville, Ky. I was in church ministry for more than five years, and I felt God calling me and my family into chaplaincy.

I have a beautiful wife, Insoon Seo, and three beautiful daughters, Yujin, Yejin and Serin. I am blessed to have their full support in my ministry and calling.

About My Ministry

I am currently the Battalion Chaplain at 129th Division Sustainment Support Battalion at Fort Campbell, Ky.
