TRUE COMMUNITY CHURCH (UPLAND)

About the Family

My name is Daniel Knott, and I am a Southern California native. I live in the Inland Empire with my wife, Christina, and two daughters, Denise and Cailee. I graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of California Berkeley and a Master of Theological Studies from Gateway Seminary in Ontario, Calif.

Christina and I have been serving in ministry since we were in college. We've been involved in youth ministry, college ministry, marriage ministry and a variety of other servant leadership roles. As a family we enjoy eating out, taking trips together and watching our girls do sports and other activities.

I've been teaching in Christian education for roughly 15 years. We are in residency at The Vine Church of Rancho Cucamonga, where we are continuing to grow and be nourished as we prepare for the work ahead as church planters.

About My Church Plant

As planters we desire to see True Community Church be a plant that lives up to being a true community. We desire to see God use the local church to reach the community, actively share the love of Jesus and train the body for continued growth and service. The mission of True Community is to train, reach, unite and evangelize.

As we train leaders, we aspire to have within our DNA a culture of growth and multiplication that goes beyond our four walls and inspires a passion for church planting and missions. We desire to reach our community in tangible ways that reflect a holistic love and burden for our neighbors.

We want to be a church that focuses on the truths that unite us, rather than opinions that divide us. And, of course, we want to impact people with the good news of Jesus Christ.

I pray you join us on our journey.
