S.E.E.D. CHURCH

About the Family

I am a native of Detroit, Michigan. I recently married Elany Clark, who is my best friend.

When I have time, I enjoy fishing for pickerel, catfish and bass, reading, traveling the states, new experiences and spending time with my family. I love being in nature. I guess it's because I did lots of camping as a Boy Scout.

About My Church Plant

My ministry focus is connecting with people and helping people connect with others. Our Sunday morning gatherings and our men's and women's groups do a good job of helping people to connect. I also, enjoy preaching the gospel in ways that cause people to think in depth while also providing practical principles that will help Christians and those who are exploring their faith to build a relationship with Jesus.
