IMMANUEL CHURCH

About the Family

Our names are Dave and Stacey Comeau. We have two children, Liza (4) and Jesse (8 months). We have spent our entire lives in Massachusetts and come from several generations of New Englanders. We met in our early 20s before we were Christians.

I was an atheist at the time, but started visiting South Shore Baptist Church (SSBC) with Stacey in Hingham, Mass., in 2008. During that year the Lord slowly opened our eyes to the glory and grace of Jesus Christ through the regular preaching ministry of SSBC and the faithful prayers of our parents.

We were discipled by SSBC and, a few years later, I began an internship to explore pastoral ministry. I received my call to ministry there and was encouraged by the pastors to consider church planting. Since then, we have been praying, preparing and waiting for the Lord's timing.

About My Church Plant

I've had the pleasure of serving the Lord and His people at three different churches in Massachusetts since 2011. I am currently a pastor and church planting resident at Redeemer Fellowship Church. Our church plant core team meets on Sunday evenings as we prepare to plant Immanuel Church in Weymouth, Mass., which is 15 miles south of Boston, in April 2022.
