FOCUS CHURCH

About the Family

I have been a pastor and church planter for more than 30 years. I have been married to my best friend for 31 years, and we have seven kids ranging in age from 26 to 15 years old—five home grown and two adopted from Ethiopia.

About My Church Plant

Our most recent church plant is of an entirely new model from anything I've done before, placing an extreme emphasis on small groups as the key to discipleship. I am passionate about the model Paul describes in Ephesians of "many-to-many" discipleship where each part brings its own unique slice of grace to everyone else. It is the grace of God which actually disciples (Titus 2:12).

Occasionally I do small-group leaders training and revitalization for other churches.
