PRIMERA IGLESIA BAUTISTA BETANIA

About the Family

My family consists of my wife, Ángela, and our daughter, Manuela. We come from Colombia, where our faith and calling were shaped. I have been married for 19 years and cherish being a dedicated husband and father. I have served in ministry for almost 30 years as a missionary, church planter, pastor, and now chaplain.

About My Church Plant

I have served in ministry for almost 30 years in roles such as missionary, church planter, pastor, and chaplain. Each season has shaped my heart for service, discipleship, and pastoral care. Now, I am replanting Primera Iglesia Bautista Betania in Shelby, North Carolina, where I am committed to helping the congregation grow in faith, unity, and mission. I am also pursuing an M.Div. and hold a degree in theological studies, which strengthens my desire to serve the Lord with clarity, humility, and biblical conviction.
