ASHEVILLE HINDI FELLOWSHIP

About the Family

I am a born-again believer and a first-generation Christian. My dad was a Hindu and was the first convert and later became an evangelist. Since my childhood I have been witnessing a life and family who has been sharing the gospel and planting churches in different parts of West Bengal, India. Along with my father, I have planted seven churches and baptized more than 1,000 people from different faith backgrounds. However, currently I am into planting churches for Asheville Hindi Fellowship. This is to reach out to all Indian people in and around Asheville, N.C.

Kindly pray for my family. Pray my wife, Dipanwita, and my daughter (born in 2013) would serve the Lord as a family.

About My Church Plant

Asheville Hindi Fellowship started as a church planting ministry in Asheville, N.C. The ministry is to reach out to all Indians who need fellowship and seeking the truth.

Our vision is based on John 10:10. Our vision is for every believer, life in all its fullness, acknowledging Jesus Christ is the Lord.

Asheville Hindi Fellowship is a ministry whose mission is to reach the unreached, to preach the gospel as a community of believers and to serve one another in the likeness of Christ.
